Panel Has Been Out Since Early Afternoon.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BRAZIL, Ind., June 3 .- The case of the State vs. Green Letsinger for the murder of Dennis Butcher in the south part of the county on the 14th of last June was given to the jury this afternoon, and at 9:30 tonight the jury was still out, which indicates that a disagreement will result. This is the second trial of the case.

Most of the efforts of the defense to-day were devoted to showing that Letsinger bore a good reputation for peace. It did not dispute the fact of the killing, but made a strong presentation in behalf of its plea of ants, gypsy or otherwise, in this part of self-defense.

The state made a strong effort to convict. Charles Vaughn said Letsinger had been discharged from the mine at Jasonville, where Butcher was employed. An effort was making at the time to bring out all the employes in the mine, and the dismissal of Letsinger precipitated trouble, as he reported it to his union. A demand was then made on Mine Boss Black for his reinstatement. Vaughn was then a district organizer, and was sent to Jasonville to settle the trouble. He testified that Black said that he discharged Letsinger because Letsinger threatened he would knock Black's head off if he lost his place. Letsinger told Vaughn he did not make the threat, though he was very angry with the mine

Vaughn took Letsinger to the mine and told Black that he hoped to get all the men into the Mine Workers' Union, and asked if in that event he would reinstate he would be a producer for the "movers." Letsinger. Black declined, because of the Dr. Byers owns the residence property he practically admitted to a committee of the threat made by Letsinger. ### LETSINGER MURDER CASE NO TRACE IS FOUND OF LOST SEELYVILLE BOY

Disagreement Expected, as the Interest Renewed in Fate of His Cousin, Who Disappeared from Home Three Years Ago.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE EFFORTS OF SEARCHERS

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 3.-The dis appearance of the little son of Dr. Byers, of Seelyville, has awakened new interest in the fate of the boy's cousin, Miss Anna White, eighteen years old, who mysteriously disappeared from her home in Illinois three years ago, and has not since been heard from. There is no evidence that there is any connection between the occurrences but there are many who are familiar with both cases who profess to think they are parts of a plot against this fated family. There is no diminution of interest in the fate of the boy. Parties are out searching in all directions, and every band of itinerthe country is being followed by earnest men, determined to recover the boy if he be yet living. Several hundred dollars, for reward purposes, have been raised by subscription at Seelyville, and the fund is yet

New stories of boys being seen with movers, or so-called gypsies, come to Dr. Byers, of Seelyville, hourly, but the week's experience running down such clews to his missing four-year-old son has shown the searchers that they are almost valueless, because about every outfit of these nomads, and the country is full of them, includes several children. They are not gypsies, but, according to their own designation. are "movers." The outfit which was followed to Vincennes yesterday by two Seelyville men sent a boy into a store at Vincennes to buy tobacco. It is found that "movers" also use children for begging purposes, and this gives Dr. Byers the only satisfactory explanation for kidnaping his child. The boy was known to all Seelyville for the readiness with which he made friends of grown persons, and as a beggar The parents describe several marks of eight-inch pipe line from Kansas City to identification. A clew of a child in a mover's wagon, stronger than the run of such stories, was told to-day by Mrs. Plogston, of Terre Haute. She had not heard or read of the missing Seeleyville boy when she happened to tell a neighbor of seeing a child in such a wagon Sunday evening, going north on Lafayette avenue, in this city.
